

English Defence League

National demo, Liverpool

3 June 2017 - Media announcement

The English Defence League will be demonstrating in Liverpool on 3 June:

- in support of British values and free speech, and
- in opposition to the Islamisation of our country and left wing ideologies, bullying and violence that enable this Islamisation.

These are national issues and we are responding with a national demo.

We have been invited to Liverpool by our supporters and are delighted to respond positively to take our message into the UK's "Communism Central". We come to Liverpool to confront local Leftist union leaders and politicians who are hell-bent on stopping us and have vowed 'to support a fightback' against our demonstration.

We assure Liverpoolians one and all that we do not say they are all associated with the serious issues that bring us to the city. But we will not let the Left use the solid, sensible majority of people in Liverpool as human shields to avoid criticism and accountability.

We will be focusing on free speech, the roots of political correctness in "cultural Marxism", left-wing councils and council employees and their virtue-signalling support for "refugees" over Liverpoolians in need. But we will never, ever, forget or ignore the rape jihad of Muslim men against English girls.

NOTE: The English Defence League is holding a series of national demonstrations through 2017 in England's hot-spots of Islamification and in Muslim-controlled "no-go areas" to give heart to English people who, until the Brexit referendum, felt ignored and who have been intimidated into not expressing their heartfelt fears for this nation's future and the society in which their children will grow up. Our latest national demonstration this year was in Birmingham on 8 March. See: <http://tinyurl.com/n4qb366>
