

The English Defence League

We're here to defend our culture, our traditions and our children. Why?

There is a tide of Islamisation rolling over our country. We've had enough! We want our country back!

Here are 12 attacks on our culture. You will know others:

- Muslim rape gangs

Attacking the next generation of English mothers

- Islamic murders

52 London bombing victims, a serving soldier – who next?

- Hate preachers on our streets and on the internet

Radicalising young Muslims against us and our culture

- Jihadists returning to Britain

Being trained to kill in Syria and Iraq then returning to the UK

- Muslim penetration of our schools

Not just in Birmingham and Bradford, but across our country

- Disrespecting British servicemen and women

One occasion of disrespect led to the formation of the EDL

- Sharia law

Around 100 sharia courts working outside British law

- Treating women as second class

Female genital mutilation, the burqa, forced marriages

- Uncontrolled mass immigration

NHS, housing, roads, schools – all buckling. We are full up!

- Uncontrolled spread of mosques

Often evading planning laws as 'community centres'

- Muslim special privileges

Multiple wives, halal foods, special deals in prisons

- Islamic teachings of superiority over us 'infidels'

They learn to regard us and our culture with contempt

Yes, we've had enough! Haven't you too?

The English Defence League

What we are: We are a human rights organisation dedicated to saving our country from Muslim extremists and their enablers: politically correct politicians, Lefties, academics and media.

What we say: Our culture, traditional values, and national identity are worth preserving and fighting for. We oppose extremism, racism and violence. Patriotism is not a dirty word. Our government needs to do its job and take action.

What we do: We hold demonstrations across England to raise awareness of Islamisation locally and nationally. We started as a bunch of lads in Luton, now the men and women at our demonstrations are joined by pensioners and children. Local people march with us to protest about Muslim grooming gangs. At our demonstrations the issues overleaf are openly reported, discussed and explained. At demonstrations our members meet, share experiences and support each other.

Those who oppose our rights to freedom of speech and assembly are the real racists, bigots and fascists.
